Diabetes Chapter 26 Antioxidants Oxidative Stress And Preeclampsia In Type 1 Diabetes
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically. "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom's mischievous and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. His aunt is pleased to see him and asks about his adventures. During supper, Aunt Polly tells him that he will be skipped school that afternoon and must be home by noon. Tom is sent to bed and Aunt Polly shows him that his collars are still worn from the previous day.

Tom goes out of the house that afternoon, whistling. While wandering the streets of St. Petersburg, Tom meets Huckleberry Finn and eventually chases the newcomes all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirtied clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of mistake. Aunt Polly agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his任务.
